

The Jefferson County 2018 Primary Election is the process by which the general public can indicate their preference for major party candidates. These candidates will vie for county, state and congressional seats in the November 6 General Election. No minor parties are holding a primary election in Jefferson County in 2018.

Ballots for the June 26 Primary Election were mailed out the week of June 4. All active registered voters who are affiliated with the Democratic or Republican Party, and those who are unaffiliated will receive ballots.

Due to voter's approval of Proposition 108 in 2016, this Primary Election marks the first time Colorado unaffiliated voters will be able to cast a primary ballot for any one political party, without affiliating.
