Subject: RMMA Roundtable: Working Together with Respect

The Rocky Mountain Metropolitan Airport Community Noise Roundtable (RMMACNR) was created in 2020, via an Intergovernmental Agreement (IGA), to address community noise impacts from aircraft operations at the Rocky Mountain Metropolitan Airport (RMMA). Members include Jefferson County, Boulder County, City and County of Broomfield, City of Westminster, City of Arvada, Town of Superior, City of Louisville, and City of Lafayette.

As stated in the Bylaws of the Roundtable, the Roundtable is committed to assuring business of the Roundtable is conducted with decorum and with respect for differing points of view.

Due to recent reports of online harassment and intimidation on social media platform discussions and by text message, the Roundtable encourages community commitment to civil, respectful, and courteous discourse and behavior, and condemns the harassment of community members, whether they are residents, pilots, elected officials, staff members, or bystanders engaged in the efforts of the Roundtable. While airport noise concerns are personal and passionate, discourse can be effective only if it's civil.

We ask that all those with interests related to the RMMA continue to bring their perspectives forward to work toward solutions while being respectful of their fellow community members.

We encourage the public to engage in robust participation and mutual respect.

John Marriott, City of Arvada

Ashley Stolzmann, Boulder County

Deven Shaff, City and County of Broomfield

Tracey Kraft-Tharp, Jefferson County
