

Success Profile

Destinee B. - Youth
2016

THE CHALLENGE

Destinee came into the WIOA Youth program to receive assistance with Project SEARCH and high school graduation and employment. Destinee has been blind since birth, paired with physical disabilities.

THE SOLUTION

Destinee participated in Project SEARCH completing an internship with the Blood Donor Center. She was provided with supportive services to get to and from her internshi, and cafeteria food cards so that she could eat lunch on-site and enhance her soft skills.

THE OUTCOME

Destinee successfully completed her internship and was hired on as an Administrative Professional. She is expected to graduate from the Transitions Program in May 2016. Destinee also possesses a bubbly personality, a determination to become as independent as possible. Congratulations, Destinee!
