

Success Profile

Patrick K. - Youth
2015

THE CHALLENGE

Patrick was a self-referred high school dropout that needed assistance obtaining and paying for a GED. He was stuck in dead-end jobs due to not having his GED. He needed support and mentoring to help him reach this goal.

THE SOLUTION

Patrick applied to WIOA and AJC staff supported him by providing onsite tutoring, purchasing the GED tests, and job search assistance. AJC staff also provided support and encouragement to help him with his short term and long term goals.

THE OUTCOME

Patrick quickly obtained his GED and even passed two tests with honors. He is now on a sustainable career pathway and is in the process of furthering his education with post secondary training at Red Rocks Community College. He has also obtained a job at Terumo BCT as an assembler.
